Trainer Manual

The Trainer Manual is the Lifesaving Society Trainer's technical reference and companion to the leadership award guides. Collectively, these resources provide Trainers with the knowledge and tools to effectively plan and deliver the certifications in the Lifesaving Society leadership system. All active Lifesaving Society Trainers need this manual, and it is a required text for candidates on Lifesaving Society Trainer courses. The Trainer Manual:

- Defines the Trainers' job and explores their professional responsibilities.
- Provides supporting information for the 13 areas of competency underlying the leadership curriculum standards.
- Provides guidance on evaluating leadership candidates.
- Provides direction on "apprentices and apprenticeship" for the aspiring Trainer candidate as well as the Trainer of record responsible for apprentices.
- Highlights leadership course policies and administrative processes and procedures.
- Includes Trainer Tips and Case Studies.

March 2019 edition, 94 pages, coil bound and 3-hole drilled for binder compatibility.

Now available from LifeguardDepot.com for $27.80 plus tax. Free shipping.

Examiner Handbook

The Examiner Handbook provides the essential knowledge and tools required to plan and conduct Lifesaving Society examinations. All active Lifesaving Society examiners need the Examiner Handbook and it is the required text for candidates on Lifesaving Society Examiner courses. The Examiner Handbook:

- Defines examiners' job and explores their professional responsibilities.
- Provides guidance on planning and conducting fair and efficient examinations.
- Provides information on relevant policies and administrative process and procedures.
- Provides direction regarding use of award guides in planning and executing the examination.
- Provides direction concerning types of examinations: original versus recertifications; continuous evaluation, multiple awards at same time; "challenge" exams.
- Provides guidance on "apprentices and apprenticeship" for the aspiring examiner candidate as well as the Examiner Mentor responsible for apprentices.

New Brunswick Expat Wins Gold at World Champs

Leah Nixon, a New Brunswick native living in Alberta, won gold in the Masters 55-59 Line Throw event with her partner Liz Neely at the Lifesaving World Championships in Adelaide, Australia last November. Their time of 23.90 set a new Canadian record for their age category.

Leah, a veteran of the Rescue '86 World Championships and a long-time supporter of Lifesaving Sport in New Brunswick, was part of the delegation that returned New Brunswick athletes to the world stage, competing as "Team NB" at the 2014 World Lifesaving Championships in France. Congratulations Leah!

National Drowning Prevention Week

LIFESAVING SOCIETY

The Lifesaving Society acknowledges and thanks the Government of New Brunswick for its ongoing support of our drowning prevention mission.

The Lifesaving Society is a national, volunteer organization and registered charity working to prevent drowning and water-related injury. Annually, over 1,000,000 Canadians participate in the Society's swimming, lifesaving, lifeguard and leadership training programs. The Society sets the standard for aquatic safety in Canada and certifies Canada's National Lifeguards.
